Sorry- I've been out sick for a couple of days.

Clean Harbors has changed gears again. Now they are looking at excavating everything. Mike Stephenson still plans on sending you the info, but he got sidetracked by the new focus. I don't think the change in interim remedy will affect the numbers you are looking at, but let me know if they might. I think they are trying to set up a conference call on Friday. Do you want to participate, or just want me to keep you informed?

I thought perhaps I would see something late Friday or this morning, but I haven't. Perhaps he sent it to you instead?

Thanks, just checking in. AJ
